

The Eschatology, Part of the Institutes of Faith and Theological Thinking. The Inchoative Eschatology

Fr. MĂDĂLIN-ȘTEFAN PETRE,
University of Craiova,

Abstract

The truths of faith does not refer exclusively to the eschatological period last creation, but on the contrary, the history of creation of eschatology envelops at the beginning and at the end of them, the end that, in fact, is a new beginning of infinity. Therefore, it is necessary that the eschatological lore regains its proper position within Orthodox theology, credited untill now only as an accessory section. On the other hand, the philosophy, the extend to wich develops an eschatological metaphysics, it is closer to the Truth. Also, within the theology, we propose the phrase of eschatology inchoative (it belongs to H. I. Marrou) because its meaning defines the most satisfactory reality which takes place in the Church and in the world. With the event of Pentecost assumed (the birth of the Church) the entire creation enters straight line towards the Fortress of Jerusalem in the Heaven.