

The Russian Theology of the 19th and 20th Centuries

Fr. PhD Professor ION POPESCU,
University of Pitești,
i.popescu1954@yahoo.com

Abstract

Our article presents very briefly the most important Russian theological personalities of the 19th and 20th centuries. It is our impression that in these centuries the Russian Theology has reached the top. I present the following theologians: Alexei Homiakov, Vladimir Soloviov, Pavel Florensky, Serghei Bulgakov, Georges Florovsky, Vladimir Lossky, John Meyendorff, Alexander Schmemmann and Paul Evdokimov. Very important to know is the fact that the Romanian theologian Dumitru Stăniloae can be considered the Romanian exponent of the neo-patristic synthesis.