

Saint Paul the Apostle, Model for the Christian Missionary

Fr. FLORIN MIHAI ILIESCU,
University of Craiova, edmond99@yahoo.com

Abstract

Through missionary trips, the Apostle Paul fully assured the preaching and introduction of the Gospel from Jerusalem and Antioch of Syria, Rome to Spain, making it possible to penetrate Christian teachings in all geographical areas accessible to all nations and all the layers that formed the society of that age who lived and worked with all zeal, with all human power and all his conscientiousness of man, sent by God Himself to preaching and salvation.